

LATE IN THE MIDNIGHT HOUR

I arise early in the morning
The war has already begun
In my mind the battle has started
The enemy rises with the sun
All day long how I must fight
The enemies arrows abound
But late in the midnight hour
God's gonna turn it around
Late in the midnight hour
God's gonna turn it around
When the sun comes up in the morning
No sorrow will be found

Joy will come in the morning
Just listen for the trumpet to sound
Late in the midnight hour
God's gonna turn it around

Do you need someone to care
Do you feel far from home
Well the tide it is turning
You're not on the battlefield alone

The victory is on its way
Heaven's shore is where we are bound
Late in the midnight hour
God's gonna turn it around
